

Carroll 2030 Presents:

Community Success in a New Economy

Friday, October 18, 7:30 - 9:30 am
Carroll Community College, Scott Center

Event is FREE. Continental Breakfast starting at 7:30 am with program beginning at 8:00 am.
Advanced registration is required at: <http://carrollcountychamber.org/>

Our world is changing rapidly, requiring new strategies to maintain and add vitality to our community. Join us for an engaging and interactive look at successful approaches from real people and real communities that will provide community leaders with meaningful ideas to position our towns and county for success in today's global economy.

Presented by:

Dave Ivan
Community & Economic Development Programs
Michigan State University

Ivan's presentation is the result of nearly two years of research and site visits to more than 75 small and mid-sized best practice communities in 22 states.

Ivan served as the statewide coordinator for a Michigan initiative designed to create a community environment that supports entrepreneurship and business enterprise development which has received national recognition. His current research examines best practices for communities in the New Economy. His research has been recognized by the Community Development Society as its National Research Project award winner.

Sponsored by:

Waste Not! Carroll

